EXPECTATION

"Do I not love him? But does he love me?
He swore so yester-eve, when last we met
Down in the dell by our old trysting tree:
Can he be false? If so, my sun is set!
No, he will come, I feel, I know he will;
And he shall never dream that once I sighed;
I hear his step, behold his form, be still,
Warm heart; he comes to clasp his bride".
